New Indian Model School, Al Ain encourages parents' involvement in school and their active participation in the school community.

School's Role

The School's Principal and staff recognises the important role Parents/Guardians play in the student's educational development, and therefore,

- Outlines communication and correspondence (in terms of frequency, content, and nature) that Schools are expected to use with Parents/Guardians, using various methods and media, such as School newsletters, telephone calls, SMS, e-mails, letters, Internet portals and meetings.
- Encourages teachers to contact Parents/Guardians when necessary to discuss academic or behavioural issues that arise in the classroom or other areas relevant to the school and its activities.
- Outlines communication and reporting mechanisms to inform Parents/Guardians about their children's academic performance, such as holding regular information sessions about the school's curriculum, teaching methodology, assessments, and the Parent/Guardian support of their children's learning at home.
- Outlines opportunities available for Parents/Guardians to visit the school and meet with the Principal, Heads of Teaching Faculties and teachers who are involved in their children's education.
- Outlines opportunities available for Parents/Guardians to participate in School activities.

- Inform Parents/Guardians of all relevant School policies and procedures and ensure Parents/Guardians have continuous and easy access to said policies and procedures.

- Keep a record of all communication with and involvement of Parents/Guardians.

We are delighted to have a pro-active and enthusiastic Parent Council who are passionate about their role.

The objectives of the Parent Council are to engage families in the education and development of their children, promote positive change at the school, develop collaborative networks and work together to deliver a calendar of social and school events.

We encourage all the parents to read the following:

- Parents' Association Goals
- Fostering partnerships between the school, families and local community institutions.
- Supporting school programs by implementing purposeful, social and educational events and programs.
- Seeking and working to provide support services to the school through community institutions as needed.

Parent's Role

- Attending periodic parents' meetings.
- Participating in extra-curricular activities organized by the school such as scientific, cultural, social, and sporting or art events after obtaining ADEK approval for them, and other relevant entities.
- Voluntary participation in School and community events such as the UAE's National Day celebrations, graduation ceremony, and other similar activities and events after obtaining ADEC approval for them, and other relevant entities.
- Participating in other School activities such as Parents councils.

Playing an active role in their children's education in accordance with the school's policy on parental/guardian engagement, including ensuring their children's punctual attendance at School every day, their completion of homework assignments, and staying informed of their progress.
